'Bowl Down Cancer Week' Held at Local Alleys

Eleven local bowling centers will participate in the second annual "Bowl Down Cancer Week," to be held April 1-7, for the benefit of the American Cancer Society.

Already announced as 100 per cent behind the project are: South Bay Bowling Center, Beach Bowl, Gable House Bowling Center, Palos Verdes Bowl, Torrance Bowling Academy, Bowl-O-Drome, 10-Bowling Center, Del Mar Lanes, Rose Lanes, Missile Bowl, and the Gardena Bowling Center.

A local project of the Southern California Bowling Proprietors Assn. and the American Cancer Society, the benefit will involve more than 1,000 society volunteers, with 250,000 league bowlers eligible to compete.

The simplified rules for the 1963 "Bowl Down Cancer" event provide for an entry fee of 50 cents and a single competition for men and women, bowling for a high series score, with handicap.

The Los Angeles County

Bowlers will compete in the Southern California bowl-off of county winners for grand prizes of a round-trip for two to Paris by TWA and a Rambler, donated by the Southern California Rambler Dealers Assn.

All proceeds from the week-long event go directly to the American Cancer Society.

If it's steaks you want, it's steaks you'll get and fine quality, too. Charley's on Cabrillo Avenue, in downtown Torrance, features steaks on its menu. While you have dinner there you will be entertained by Bob Garretson at the organ.

Italian food, both to go, and to eat at the restaurant. This is the policy of Pisciotto's Pizza on Hawthorne Boulevard, just north of Torrance Boulevard. Pisciotto's has a full line of Italian food such as pizza, lasagne, spaghetti, and jumbo Italian sandwiches.
